A.R.T. PARISHES MAGAZINE

Welcome to the combined December 2024/January 2025 Edition of the Magazine for the Churches of Anslow, Rolleston-on-Dove and Tutbury.

Dear Friends

It is with mixed emotions that I write this my final pastoral letter of the ART Magazine. Years ago a retiring clergyman commented to me, “clergy are like Marmite – some people love us, and some people don’t!”. I have found this to be true in the five years in the ART Benefice. Never before have I experienced such polarised attitudes, words and behaviours.

I still believe this was where God called me to minister when I applied then was interviewed, appointed and licensed in 2019. I have so many wonderful memories of “God moments”; child and adult baptisms, beaming smiles as couples marry, tears of sadness shared when loved ones die, and leading poignant funerals of babies, children and adults. We experienced Covid together – Facebook and live streaming, take-home Lent bags, Advent windows and W4A Activity kits. We turned Christmas trees into Lent Crosses then Pentecost fires.

I have been privileged to lead, several Bible Courses and the Prayer Course. I have seen people becoming more confident in prayer and in their understanding of God’s Word. I have loved our systematic approach of services and sermons based on the Lectionary and our summer “Heroes of faith”. I hear people saying “God moment” or “God-coincidence” in everyday conversations. I too have grown in my faith.

I can testify to the love and sustaining power of God, experienced through the Holy Spirit, in my own life as well in the lives of many others.

All human beings, and maybe clergy more than most, will let us down. They will do things we disagree with or misunderstand. They will not fulfil our expectations. They, or we, will leave, moving to another physical place or into glory – to be in God’s eternal presence. An Anglican funeral prayer feels appropriate as I end this letter and my time here.

Heal the memories of hurt and failure.

Give us the wisdom and grace to use aright

the time that is left to us here on earth, to turn to Christ and follow in his steps in the way that leads to everlasting life.

Ultimately, it is all about Jesus. I commend Him to you.

Phyllis

Reflections for Advent Christmas and New Year

What the donkey saw (by U.A. Fanthorpe)

No room in the inn, of course,
And not that much in the stable,
What with the shepherds, Magi, Mary,
Joseph, the heavenly host –
Not to mention the Baby
Using our manager as a cot.
You couldn't have squeezed another cherub in
For love nor money.

Still, in spite of the overcrowding,
I did my best to make them feel wanted.
I could see that baby and I
Would be going paces together.

Christmas doesn't work for everyone

(by Ruth Burgess. Winter p128. Wild Goose publications.)

Christmas doesn't work for everyone, does it God?
For a lot of people Christmas is sad
And full of bad memories
For a lot more Christmas is cold
And hungry, and lonely.

Help us, God, to watch and listen:
To watch out for people who might need our help,
To listen to [people who tell us their stories.

And even though it's Advent
And we're supposed to be watching and listening;
It's OK to act too, when that's what 's needed.

It's OK to cry
and to talk and sad stuff and to love and listen.
It's Ok to give someone cash for their meter
or food for their table.
It's good to share our resources.

Christmas doesn't work for everyone, does it God?
But it might work better if we looked for you in the people around us, as well as in the manger.

Reflections for Advent Christmas and New Year - Continued

Travelling with God (a reflection)

(by Roddy Hamilton. Winter p276. Wild Goose publications)

Waiting for the old year to end
and the New Year to begin,
waiting to say farewell and welcome:
farewell to all that we can leave behind,
welcome to all that we travel toward.

Life in abundance is God's promise that waits to meet us as we journey on with a spring in our step and hope in our hearts.

Travelling with God is never dull
but always filled with surprises.

So we mourn not the past nor dread the future
but open ourselves to the possibilities of compassion,
of kindness,
of humility,
of gentleness,
of patience,
opening ourselves to the possibility of God bringing life in all its fullness.
Hand in hand with God, we step into a brave new future.

You are invited to 24 hours of prayer

This was first suggested in a Rolleston “James” home group, which in turn grew out of the Lent 2024 Prayer Course.

- The idea is to have a focussed 24-hour of prayer, the aims being :
- to commit ourselves to God in the season of Advent,
- to pray about our guest Christmas school and church services and
- to set the foundations for a prayerful vacancy in 2025.

The “24 hours” will begin with our morning Communion services on Sunday 15 December. It will include BCP Evensong at 6.30pm.

There will be other prayer activities lasting about 15 minutes in the lady chapel of St Mary’s, Rolleston. These will be at 12 noon, 2pm, 4pm and 8pm with Compline at 10pm, and may include listening to music, reading a psalm, a meditation, a poem, or contemplative silent prayer.

Please note, you are NOT expected to attend every prayer moment.

During the night, if you wake up, you might want to say the Lord’s Prayer before going back to sleep. We end the “24 hours” with Morning Prayer at 8am and a Benefice Communion at 10am in the Lady chapel in Rolleston on the Monday, then coffee and biscuits in the Rectory.

You might also like to consider fasting. “Fasting” can be going without all food, or maybe just restricting yourself to plain food, or no alcohol, or chocolate, or no TV or social media for those 24 hours. Fasting has not been written out of the spiritual disciplines for followers of Jesus Christ!

Philippians 4:6-7

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

The "James" groups 2024 / 25

Further to the Prayer Course earlier this year, those attending said they wanted to keep meeting together. We have setting up fortnightly "Home Groups", again on 2 times of a week, usually in the Rectory. The groups are looking at the letter of James, developing the theme of our Sunday sermons in September.

All are welcome to these groups. You can join any time.

The format is:

- Coffee or tea
- Opening worship eg listening to song(s) or music or reading a Psalm to help us worship and giving praise and thanksgiving to God.
- Read the bible passage and discuss it using the Tom Wright notes.
- A prayer activity e.g. Post-it notes, contemplation, etc

No.	Monday group 10am	Tuesday group 7pm	T. Wright Chapter(s)	Bible reading

Smile Lines for Christmas

What would you like for Christmas?

A little girl visited Father Christmas in the local garden centre grotto. He welcomed her with a smile and asked what she would like for Christmas. She gasped, and stared at him in horror. "Didn't you get my email?!"

What do you get Dad?

December is the month when the family begins to discuss what to get Dad for Christmas. Some argue for a shirt; others hold out for a pair of socks. But the argument usually ends in a tie.

Church Rules

Six year-old Angie and her four-year-old brother Joel sat together for the Christmas concert in church. Joel kept giggling and whispering until his big sister had had enough. "Be quiet in church!"

"Why?" Joel demanded. "Who is going to make me?"

Angie pointed to the back of the church and said: "See those two big men standing at the door? They're hushers."

REMEMBRANCE in TUTBURY 2024

Thank you to all who contribution to our Act of Remembrance 2024.

The weekend began with Poppies and Proms with Burton Concert Band in Church in the evening. The church choir made a fitting contribution of three musical items.

A raffle was held and refreshments served and the evening raised £496.70, after expenses and a contribution to the British Legion.

On Sunday morning, the weather set fair which helped tremendously for the parade, which led by a Piper, started from the Village, arriving at the War Memorial for the laying of wreaths, the Role of Honour read, and the two minutes silence observed, before we went into the church.

The Church had been beautifully decorated with flower displays by Terry Clarke. The Poppy Cascade fitted by the Scouts, was magnificent. The Parade from outside was led by the choir and the colour party. The Church was full.

The service of Remembrance was well attended and enjoyed by both young and old. Thank you, Reverend Dave, for leading this service. He entranced the Children with his sermon featuring the spelling of GOD backwards to draw parallels with "Man's Best and faithful Friend"

On the Monday, a group met at the Memorial at 11.00 am to again observe the two minutes silence and the names of the fallen read by George Brannan. A very successful and meaningful Remembrance 2024. We were able to donate £600.00 from Tutbury to the Royal British Legion.

Dear Friends

It hardly seems possible but by the time you are reading this there will be less than a month until we welcome in 2025. Our last meeting of 2024 will be held on 5th December at 1:30pm in The Priory Suite. There will be a short service to admit new members followed by tea, mince pies, carols etc. Visitors are always welcome; you don't need to be a member. After some discussion some weeks ago it was agreed that we would like to hold our meetings on a regular day, venue etc as was the norm pre-covid. However our 1st meeting in 2025 will take place on 9th January when we will go out for a meal at the Spread Eagle in Rolleston at 12:30 for 13:00. Subsequent meetings will take place on the first Thursday of the month at 13:30 in the Priory Suite, Tutbury.

All that remains is to wish all readers best wishes for Christmas and the year ahead and please don't be afraid to join us at any of our meetings. We are here for everyone.

With love and prayers

Phyllis in Retirement

In mid-January 2025, Chris and Phyllis are moving back to the house they own in Derby. Chris is not retiring yet and is continuing to work in the Hospital. Phyllis is planning a sabbatical before becoming a PtO (permission to officiate) priest in Derby Diocese. Like in Lichfield, there are many vacancy parishes in Derby so she will be helping to cover some of the Holy Communion services. She has already been asked to be part of a carer and baby/toddler group as well as officiating at weddings in local churches. She is also a qualified Pastoral Supervisor and will take on more clients, usually curates and new incumbents.

If you wish the future contact details for Phyllis, please ask her for them. Please do not share her details without permission. Thank you.

A Thank you from Chris and Phyllis

To those who made our 5 years in the ART Benefice and living in Rolleston, an enjoyable and fulfilling time, we thank you for your love, friendship, support and the many donations of GF baking. We will miss you.

We pray God's blessing upon you, and we commit you, and ourselves, into God's safe keeping.

A Celtic Blessing.

May the road rise to meet you.

May the wind be always at your back.

May the sunshine warm upon your face.

May the rains fall upon your fields,
and until we meet again,

may God hold you in the hollow of His hand.
Amen.
